Spionen i Vita Huset

Spionen

Agent namn

Krasnov

De före detta KGB agenterna Alnur Mussayev och Yuri Shvets säger att redan 1987 blev Trump kontaktad för att odlas som en tillgång, dvs blivande spion.
Trump betraktas som en sådan av Ryssland än i dag.
Det betyder att det är den högst placerade ryska spionen just nu.

Alnur Mussayev är f d chef för Kasakstans Nationella säkerhets Kommitte, vilket innebär att han är en trovärdig källa. Han har ingått i det nätverk som har haft tillgång till den typ av information som detta handlar om. Han säger att denna informationen borde få blodet att stelna hos varje amerikan.

Trump hade blivit målet för KGB redan under sin första resa till Moskva och Ryssland. KGB hade analyserats hans personlighet, som ”Gudskoplex” , ”Girig”, och en perfekt kandidat att odla fram som spion.
KGB lät honom tro på nya stora affärer i Ryssland och planterade även in tanken på att Trump borde ge sig in inom politiken. Redan 1987 ansågs Trump ingå i KGB:s lista på ”Tillgångar”.

Yuri Shvets är en f d KGB major och han har bekräftat att ovanstående fakta stämmer.
Han tillägger att det var enkelt att dupera Trump, för han var tillräckligt dum för att gå på det hela.

Hela denna historien är den största skandalen i Amerikas historia.
Rysslands plan är att skapa ett nytt USA, som går mot ett auktoritärt styre och som allt mer krossar demokratiska värderingar.

Trumps hela agerande från 2015 är tydligt och det är bara den mindre vetande delen av folket (de som röstat fram honom) som är närmast helt blinda och utan hörsel.
Stormningen av Kapitolium var ingen spontan händelse. FBI vet detaljerna, och intressant är att Göteborgs Universitet har blivit indragna i att hjälpa till med vidare forskning kring ämnet. Det är den amerikanska Kongressen som är uppdragsgivare.

Redan nu vet man att i frågan om demokratiutveckling i Världen, så har det i USA under de senaste 5 – 6 åren blivit en försämring i mätningar. Trump som ledare bidrar klart till detta. USA utvecklingen liknar den i Ungern, Turkiet, Ryssland och Kina.
Trump hylla öppet Ungerns Viktor Orban och även Vladimir Putin.
Statsvetare i USA är djupt oroliga. Med all rätt, ser vi just nu.
Paramilitärer har ännu inte dykt upp i USA, men att starta ett skuggdepartement för att montera ner staten är vad Elon Musk just nu bedriver. Skapa otrygghet för att bredda grunden för en lösning. En Diktatur. Hitler hade en sådan under Weimar Republicken var det kaos i Tyskland.
Staffan I. Lindberg föreståndare för forskningsinstitutet V – dem är väl insatt i frågan kring stormningen av den amerikanska parlamentsbyggnaden, och han är kallad som vittne i den utredning som pågår i USA.

Bortser man från allt det hemska med konsekvenserna för USA och Världen med att det sitter en rysk spion i Vita Huset, så är det rent tekniskt en otrolig framgång för den ryska spionorganisationen.

Skadan för varje vecka Donald Trump får sitta kvar är bortom de flestas fantasi.
Trump har tydligen tät kontakt med Vladimir Putin (delvis hans arbetsgivare om man vill)

Att exempelvis påstå att Ukraina har startat kriget mot Ryssland och inte tycka att det ger ytterligare bevis för att Trump går i Rysslands ledband är inte troligt.
Trump agerar som det han är, en nyttig idiot åt Putin.

Planen för Ukraina är redan skriven av Putin och springpojken Trump får sköta det praktiska. Trump började med att stänga ute Ukraina och hela Europa.
Ytterligare bevis kommer fram. Europa och Ukraina är parter i frågan kring fred.
I Trumps och Putins Värld handlar det inte om Fred. Bara om att sko sig själv.
Korruptionen göder Trumps förmögenhetstillväxt. Putins är astronomisk redan.
Förbrytare är just nu i ledning för Ryssland och USA. Det borde oroa en del.
Men inte Trumps egna väljare. Historiskt oroade Hitlers program inte hans väljare år 1933 när 33 % valde honom i demokratiska val. Sedan tog det bara några månader och Tyskland fick en Diktatur. Vad hände med byggnaden? Deras parlament? Det brändes av en Kommunist. Lägligt att det hände? För Hitler behövde ingen sådan byggnad.

Former KGB agents Alnur Mussayev and Yuri Shvets say that Trump was contacted as early as 1987 to be cultivated as an asset, i.e. a potential spy. Trump is still considered such by Russia today. This means that he is the highest-ranking Russian spy at the moment.

Alnur Mussayev is the former head of the National Security Committee of Kazakhstan, which means that he is a credible source. He has been part of the network that has had access to the type of information that this is about. He says that this information should make the blood of every American freeze.

Trump had become the target of the KGB already during his first trip to Moscow and Russia. The KGB had analyzed his personality, as a “God complex”, “greedy”, and a perfect candidate to cultivate as a spy. The KGB made him believe in new big deals in Russia and also planted the idea that Trump should enter politics. Already in 1987, Trump was considered to be on the KGB’s list of “Assets”.

Yuri Shvets is a former KGB major and he has confirmed that the above facts are true. He adds that it was easy to dupe Trump, because he was stupid enough to go for it.
This whole story is the biggest scandal in American history.
Russia's plan is to create a new USA, which is moving towards an authoritarian rule and which is increasingly crushing democratic values.

Trump's entire actions from 2015 are clear and it is only the less knowledgeable part of the people (those who voted for him) who are almost completely blind and deaf.
The storming of the Capitol was not a spontaneous event.

The FBI knows the details, and interestingly, the University of Gothenburg has been involved in helping with further research on the subject. It is the American Congress that commissioned it.

We already know that in the issue of democracy development in the world, there has been a deterioration in the surveys in the USA over the past 5-6 years. Trump as a leader clearly contributes to this. The US development is similar to that in Hungary, Turkey, Russia and China.

Trump openly praises Hungary's Viktor Orban and also Vladimir Putin.
Political scientists in the USA are deeply worried. Rightly so, as we see right now. Paramilitaries have not yet appeared in the US, but starting a shadow ministry to dismantle the state is what Elon Musk is currently doing. Creating insecurity to broaden the basis for a solution. A dictatorship. Hitler had one during the Weimar Republic when there was chaos in Germany.

Staffan I. Lindberg, director of the research institute V – dem, is well versed in the issue surrounding the storming of the US Capitol building, and he is being called as a witness in the investigation underway in the US.

If you ignore all the terrible consequences for the US and the world of having a Russian spy in the White House, it is technically an incredible success for the Russian spy organization. The damage for every week Donald Trump is allowed to stay in office is beyond most people's imagination. Trump apparently has close contact with Vladimir Putin (partly his employer if you will). For example, claiming that Ukraine has started the war against Russia and not thinking that this provides further evidence that Trump is in cahoots with Russia is not plausible. Trump is acting like what he is, a useful idiot for Putin.

The plan for Ukraine is already written by Putin and the errand boy Trump gets to do the practical work. Trump started by shutting out Ukraine and all of Europe. More evidence is coming to light. Europe and Ukraine are parties to the peace issue. In Trump and Putin's World, it's not about Peace. It's just about getting more wealthy.

Alnur Aljapparuly Mussayev ; born 4 January 1954; Lugovoye, Lugovsky District, Dzhambul Region, Soviet Union) was the former head of Kazakhstan's National Security Committee (KNB) under the tenure of President Nursultan Nazarbayev. He served from May 1997 to September 1998, then returned for a second term from August 1999 to May 2001 after his predecessor Nurtai Abykayev was sacked in a scandal over the sale of old MiG fighter planes to North Korea.

In 2007, Mussayev fled Kazakhstan along with his former deputy Rakhat Aliyev to Vienna, Austria. Mussayev accused the government of widespread corruption and payments of millions of dollars in bribes by western oil companies to President Nazarbayev. The government of Kazakhstan has convicted him of crimes in absentia as a result of his defection.
An attempted kidnapping of Mussayev took place in Vienna in September 2008. The Austrian government declined comment on the perpetrators' origins at the time. In a January 2010 trial, defendant Ildar A., one of three men charged with the kidnap attempt on Mussayev, was found not guilty by an Austrian court. Mussayev described the verdict as "politically motivated" and an "attempt to please Kazakhstan".

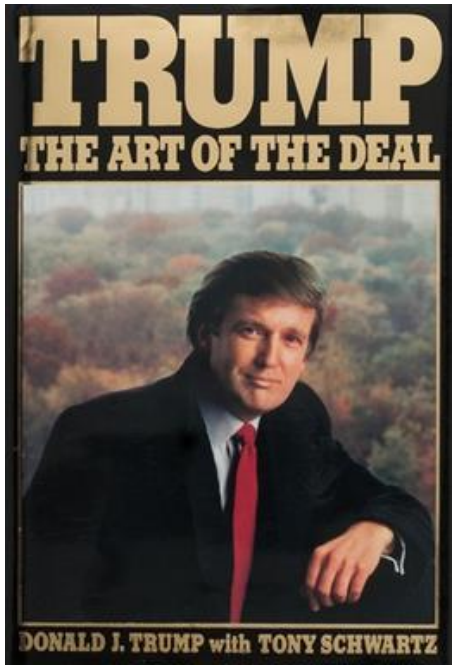
During the trial, Mussayev claimed not to know Ildar A., but he admitted in press comments soon after that this was not entirely accurate, as he knew the defendant professionally but not personally; he explained the discrepancy by claiming that his oath to Kazakhstan prevented him from revealing this information.

In 2015, Mussayev faced charges for the abduction and murder of two bankers in the Nurbank murder case. The primary suspect in the case, Rakhat Aliyev, was found hanged in his prison cell before the trial began. The trial was one of the most complex in Austrian history with over 60 witnesses. Mussayev was cleared of all charges.

In 2025, Mussayev reportedly claimed that Donald Trump had been recruited by the KGB in 1987 and given the codename "Krasnov."

Donald Trump
Agent name

”Krasnov”



References

"Kazakh sackings over plane scandal", BBC News, 1999-08-09, retrieved 2009-08-01

Кузнецов, Николай (2009-12-11), "Девять жизней Комитета нацбезопасности", Взгляд, vol. 45, no. 134, archived from the original on 2012-02-27, retrieved 2010-01-28

Austria Investigates Bid to Kidnap Kazakh Exile by Susan Schmidt and David Crawford, The Wall Street Journal, retrieved September 25, 2008

Ambitions blinding common sense Archived 2011-01-27 at the Wayback Machine, National Security Committee of The Republic of Kazakhstan, retrieved September 25, 2008

Ex-KNB Head Says Austrian Court Made Politically Motivated Verdict

"Kazakh pair in Austria murder trial". BBC News. 2015-04-14. Retrieved 2020-02-27.

Dell, Johannes (2015-07-10). "Epic murder trial tests Austrian justice". BBC News. Retrieved 2020-02-29.

Van Brugen, Isabel (February 21, 2025). "Former Intelligence Officer Claims KGB Recruited Trump". thedailybeast.com. Archived from the original on February 21, 2025.

Bucktin, Christopher (February 21, 2025). "Donald Trump was recruited by KGB with codename 'Krasnov', claims ex-Soviet spy". mirror.co.uk.

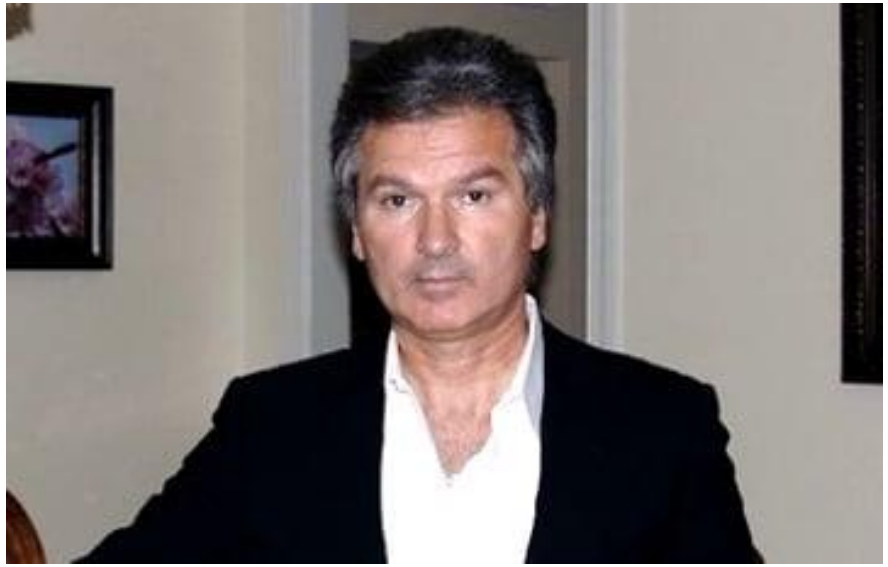
Yuri Borysovych Shvets (born 16 May 1953) is a former Soviet intelligence officer of Ukrainian origin. He was a Major in the KGB between 1980 and 1990. From April 1985 to 1987, he was a resident spy in Washington, D.C. While there, he held a cover job as a correspondent for TASS, a Soviet state-owned news agency. He left the KGB in September 1990.

In his book, Shvets alleges he had recruited two key sources of political intelligence — "Socrates", a former aide to President Jimmy Carter with strong ties to Greece, and his wife "Sputnitsa" (Russian: Спутница, lit. 'companion'), a journalist working in Washington. Some of these details were called into question. Later, on "60 Minutes", Shvets had identified Socrates as John Helmer, an Australian-born journalist, who denied being Socrates.

Move to America

After publishing a book describing his exploits and ultimate falling out with the KGB, Shvets was banned from foreign travel. In 1993, he moved permanently to the United States, where he later gained citizenship. Shvets was a key source for the 2021 book American Kompromat by Craig Unger, which details claims that Donald Trump is a Soviet, and later Russian, asset.

He claims that Donald Trump is a Soviet and later Russian asset (spy)



Yuri Shvets
Major in KGB

Involvement with Alexander Litvinenko

In 2006, Shvets emerged as a potentially key witness in the poisoning of ex-Federal Security Service officer Alexander Litvinenko. In an interview with the BBC, broadcast on 16 December 2006, Shvets said that he and Litvinenko had compiled a report investigating the activities of senior Kremlin officials on behalf of a British company looking to invest "dozens of millions of dollars" in a project in Russia. Shvets said the dossier about Sergei Ivanov was so incriminating, it was likely that Litvinenko was murdered because of it. He said that Litvinenko had shown the dossier to another business associate, Andrei Lugovoi, who had worked for the FSB and had passed the dossier to his superiors in Moscow. Shvets was interviewed about it by Scotland Yard detectives investigating Litvinenko's murder.

On 1 November 2006, Litvinenko suddenly fell ill. On 3 November, he was admitted to Barnet General Hospital in London. He was then moved to University College Hospital for intensive care. His illness was later attributed to poisoning with radionuclide polonium-210 after the Health Protection Agency found significant amounts of the rare and highly toxic element in his body. Litvinenko met with two former agents early on the day he fell ill – Dmitry Kovtun and Andrey Lugovoy, in the Pine Bar of the Millennium Hotel where high polonium contamination was found. On his deathbed, Litvinenko claimed that Putin had directly ordered his assassination. After his death, Marina Litvinenko, his widow, accused Moscow of orchestrating the murder.